

Adjunct Instructors

Fall Semester 2019

Nursing Adjunct Instructor

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking adjunct instructors to teach medical-surgical clinicals during the day and/or evening for the Spring 2020 semester. Applicants must be licensed as a Registered Professional Nurse in Illinois and a Missouri license is desirable. The minimum education required is a Master of Science in Nursing. Also, a minimum of two years of professional experience as a Registered Nurse and a strong medical-surgical background is required. Contact Dr. Sheri Banovic, Director of Nursing Education at 618-468-4410 or sbanovic@lc.edu.

Medical Assisting Adjunct Instructors

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking highly qualified and motivated adjunct instructors to teach Medical Assisting courses during the Spring 2020 semester. Applicants must have a minimum of three years of recent work experience in the field in a physician's office. The course to be taught will be MEDA 171-Health Insurance and the EHR at our East St. Louis campus. There is also the possibility of teaching MEDA 140-Clinical Medical Assisting Skills I and MEDA 120-Pathophysiology I.

The successful candidate:

- Maintains active participation in professional development that encompasses the disciplines of medical assisting, teaching effectiveness and student learning
- Maintains affiliations with national and regional organizations
- Has an Associate Degree in medical assisting. Must have RMA or CMA (AAMA) credential
- Has experience in phlebotomy, immunizations, venipuncture, injections, pharmacology, EKG, wound care, GYN procedures and vital signs

Documentation, computer skills, administrative competency, EHR (electronic health records)/practice management knowledge are helpful and previous teaching experience is preferred.

This is a part-time (adjunct) position and we are seeking instructors who can accommodate day and/or evening classes. Contact Shelle Ridings, Coordinator of Medical Assisting and Medical Coding at 618-468-4616 or email sridings@lc.edu.

ITEC (Information Technology) Adjunct Instructor

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking an adjunct instructor to teach Information Technology during the Spring 2020 semester. Classes will be taught during the day on the Godfrey campus. Candidates should have a bachelor's or higher degree in a computer-related field and several years of hands-on technical experience. Contact: Doyle McClellan, ITEC & ELTN Coordinator at 618-468-4951 or email DMcClellan@lc.edu.

Spanish Instructor

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking an adjunct instructor to teach Spanish during the Spring 2020 semester. Classes will be taught during the evening on the Godfrey campus. Candidates must have a Master's in Spanish or a Master's in another field plus 18 graduate hours of Spanish. He/she should have completed or be willing to complete the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages speaking test and will need to score Advanced Mid. Contact: Gail Drillinger, Division Assistant, 618-468-4701, gdrillin@lc.edu.

Economics Instructor for Microeconomics

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking an adjunct Economics instructor to teach Microeconomics during the Spring 2020 semester. Classes will be both day and evening classes on the main campus in Godfrey, Illinois and the N.O. Nelson located in Edwardsville, Illinois. Candidate should possess either an MBA or Masters in Economics. Contact: Dr. Doug Schneiderheinze, Business Division Coordinator, at 618-468-4576 or email ddschnei@lc.edu.

Economics Instructor for Macroeconomics

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking an adjunct Economics instructor to teach Macroeconomics during the Spring 2020 semester. Classes will be both day and evening classes on the main campus in Godfrey, Illinois and the N.O. Nelson located in Edwardsville, Illinois. Candidate should possess either an MBA or Masters in Economics. Contact: Dr. Doug Schneiderheinze, Business Division Coordinator, at 618-468-4576 or email ddschnei@lc.edu.

Chemistry Adjunct

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking an adjunct Chemistry instructor to teach CHEM 130, Fundamentals of General, Organic and Biochemistry for evening classes. These classes will be taught on the Godfrey campus. The format is Face-to-face, includes both lecture and laboratory. Candidate should possess a minimum of Master's degree in Chemistry. Contact: Dr. Alan Bruha, Professor, Chemistry, at 618-468-4830 or abruha@lc.edu.

Nurse Assistant Adjunct Instructors

Lewis and Clark Community College is currently seeking adjunct instructors to teach Nurse Assistant classes. Classes taught will be during the day or evening and taught at the Godfrey campus and Jerseyville Community Education Center. Candidates must be an RN with a minimum of two years of Long Term Care or Chronic Care experience. Applicants must also have successfully completed an approved Train the Trainer Program, Skills Evaluator, and Alzheimer's content program. Contact Dawn Earnshaw, Certified Nurse Assistant Coordinator, 618-468-6881 or dklopmeier@lc.edu.